HARVARD'S VARSITY EIGHT TRAINING FOR BIG RACE WITH YALE

Coach Wray (insert) and Harvard varsity crew.

James Wray's Harvard crews are showing up in great form and the most thrilling race of the year is expected on June 25, when Harvard and Yale meet at New London, Conn. Betting is even and both sides confident.

HONORS DIVIDED
IN SALT LAKE

Venice Grabs First Game 15 to 7 and Salt Lake Gets Second 7 to 6 by One-run Margin.

Salt Lake, June 18.—It was circus day yesterday—in two spots. Sells-Floto had the big top up at Eighth South and Main streets, but the real hippodrome was at Majestic park. It was a two-act affair with Venice finishing alone in the first by a 15 to 7 count and Salt Lake coming through in the final by a one-run margin, the score reading 7 to 6. There were no curtain calls.

The fans who like plenty of cannonading had a great treat. Get this: Fifty-three hits were made during the afternoon, which is going some for any old class D league. Of that number, six were home runs and twelve doubles with a triple thrown in. The rest were just the ordinary garden variety of singles, making the total bases of the double massacre eighty-five.

Every pitcher who worked was slammed. La Roy, Gregory and Morgan took their beating in the first game, and Hall was pounded hard in the second. Rhine Hitt in the first spasm and Father Chech in the other were dent hard and often. One real finger would have been something to put in the side show. A pitching arm would have caused a riot any time after the first inning of the first game (?).

Venice counted first in the second game on a single by Risberg and Spencer's double. This condition continued until the fourth when Blankenship's crowd climbed all over Chech. Orr led off with a homer over the left garden wall. Gedon was out but Zacher was safe on Risberg's error. Tennant scored him with a triple to center. Hallinan chased in Tommy with a double to center. Rohrer was out on a drive to Berger, but Hall clouted the ball over the fence, scoring Hallinan.

Salt Lake took another in the sixth on a double by Rohrer and Hall's single. Doubles by Zacher and Hallinan scored one more in the seventh.

Venice dented Hall in the eighth. Hall in going after a throw by Orr had his finger of his left hand split and wasn't feeling very good. He walked Gleisemann and Swede Risberg slammed the next one over the fence. Venice made a bid in the ninth and had the fans badly worried. Wilhoit and Bayless singled. Purcell skied to Zacher. Gedon missed Gleisemann's grounder and Wilhoit scored and Bayless took third. Risberg doubled, scoring Bayless and Gleisemann. Exit Hall, enter Lefty Williams. Spencer filed to Shinn and Risberg was held at second. Kane hitting for Chech, walked and both, the tying and winning runs were in sight. Hettling, pinch hitting for Carlisle, sent a fly to left and after much sun dancing Faye corraled it for the final death.

ANGELS WIN FROM
SEALS 3 TO 2

Hughes Has Seals Standing on Their Heads—Koerner at First Base.

Los Angeles, Cal., June 17.—The Angels won a game today for a change. It was not a forfeited affair, nor were any of the Seals minus a leg or an arm, but a sun-scorched game, and the score was 3 to 2 for nine innings. This was enough to satisfy the fans, but added attraction in the way of Koerner's first appearance at first base was stuck into the program, which made it a very pleasing afternoon's sport for two bits.

Koerner did himself proud. He got one of the Angels' three runs, made two hits, had ten putouts, one assist and nary an error.

Hughes, who was belted out of yesterday's game, came right back today and had the Seals standing on their heads. In the second Heilmann doubled, stole third and scored on Jones' long fly. Schaller walked in the fourth and a sacrifice, Bodie's infield single and Downs' out, Terry to Koerner, let him score, and that was all for the Seals.

The Angels got to Fanning in their part of the fourth for three singles, which, with Leard's error, put over two men, and the third and big run of the game came in the eighth on three successive singles by Terry, Boles and Ryan, the latter batting for Metzger. The Seals had three men on in the ninth, with one down, but Leard fanned and Block flew out to Ellis.

OAKS WIN IN
DOUBLEHEADER

Wonderful One-handed Catch on Run by Mundorff Saves Second Game for Oakland.

San Francisco, June 17.—A wonderful one-handed catch on the run by Mundorff saved the second game of a double header for the Oaks this afternoon, and sent the Beavers to bed subdued and crushed in both games. The score was 3 to 1 in the Oaks favor when the big stunt was pulled off. It was in the eighth inning.

The Beavers had the bases full with two down when Bates, the Cleveland boy with a reputation as a stickler, went to the plate. He did just what was expected of him and sent a drive to the right field fence that looked good for three bags if not the circuit. Mundorff started after the ball, although he did not appear to have a chance in the world of getting within speaking distance of it. As one last desperate effort to save the day he stuck out his mitt while running full speed. The sphere landed squarely in the center of it and stuck to it like glue. That ended the hopes of the Beavers.

In the first game heavy hitting was the feature of the fray. Coveleskie started on the mound, but the Oaks took such a liking to his offerings that he was retired for Bobby Keefe, who fared little better. The score at the windup was 8 to 4.

Harry Ables tried aviation in the third and fourth innings, permitting the Portland team to tie the score, but he finally came back to earth and attended strictly to business, and held the Beavers at his mercy while his teammates were making the circuit of the sacks almost at will.

Chicago, June 17.—Batting neck and neck in a great exhibition of pitching. Zabel of Chicago, and Pfeifer of Brooklyn today fought a nineteen inning game to a finish, which was heart-breaking from the standpoint of the visiting pitcher, despite his brilliant work, for the Cubs won

4 to 3. The game set a season's record for number of innings, but it was played rapidly. Pfeiffer worked all through the contest and Zabel, approaching Humphries, when the latter's hand was split by Wheat's hit in the first inning, pitched nearly as long.

Erratic support was given both slabmen. Every Brooklyn run was directly helped in by an error and two of Chicago's were due to mis-plays. Fisher counted the winning score when Cuthbert threw wild on

Williams' hard grounder in the nineteenth. Fast fielding saved scores for both sides, too, infielders and outfielders vying in desperate efforts to prevent runs.

Pittsburg, June 17.—New York defeated Pittsburg in the first game of the series today, 3 to 1. The locals were unable to bunch their hits off

Marquard. In the seventh, with men on second and third, Marquard singled and scored the runners.

Cincinnati, June 17.—A three-base hit by Herzog and a single by Kill-fer, after two men were out in the ninth, won for Cincinnati from Philadelphia today, 2 to 1. Both pitchers worked well, but Mayer weakened slightly toward the end of the game.

St. Louis, June 17.—St. Louis defeated Boston, 2 to 0, here today, though Rudolph allowed but one hit until the seventh inning. In that inning, however, St. Louis made two runs on two singles, a base on balls and a sacrifice hit, coupled with

Smith's wild throw past first.

RUSSIANS UNABLE

TO STEM BATTLE

London, June 17, 11:56 p. m.—An other twenty-four hours of fighting in Galicia has developed nothing to stem the Austro-German tide toward Lemberg and the northwest, and tonight

Berlin claims that the Russians are retreating over their own frontier toward Jaroslog, about four miles from the Galician border.

This means an invasion of Russian territory at a new point, but, according to military observers here, it may spell ultimate advantage for the Russians, in that a general Russian re-retirement northward into Poland divert General Linsingen's attempt to crush the Russian center near Zuraw-na, which would effectively sever the communications of the Russian army in southeastern Galicia and Bukovina.

Real Danger Point.

The military writers here say that the real danger zone from the Russian standpoint is in the Zurawna district and along the Dniester.

According to Berlin, the Austro-

German forces have battered through

Niemerow, thirty miles northwest of Lemberg, and are advancing toward Jaworow, which is only twenty-five miles west of the Galician capital.

Three great masses of Austro-Ger-
